

Social and Personal

A WEDDING of interest to society in Richmond to take place today at high noon in the home of the bride in Fredericksburg, Md., will be that of Miss Susan H. Garrett, daughter of Mrs. Joseph H. Garrett, to James Edward Allen, of this city. Rev. Frank M. Allen, brother of the groom, assisted by the Rev. Frederick H. Barrett, of Elkins, W. Va., will perform the ceremony. Masses of daisies and mountain laurel, with a background of palms, will decorate the house, and Professor Hon. Firestone will play the wedding march from "Lohengrin."

The ushers will be Dr. Thomas M. Williamson and Hanson Maulsby, both of Fredericksburg, and the groom will have as his best man William C. Morton, of Martinsburg, W. Va.

The bridesmaids will be Misses Nellie C. Garrett and Lottie Allen, of Richmond. They will wear charming lingerie frocks, trimmed with quantities of Valenciennes lace. Misses Mary A. Williamson, Julia P. Williamson, Elizabeth P. Tyler, of Fredericksburg, and Miss Eileen Davis, of Baltimore, Md., will hold the ribbons forming the aisle through which the bride party will pass. They also will wear frocks of soft mulle, trimmed in lace.

The bride, who will enter with her mother, will wear an exquisite gown of white crepe, trimmed in real lace, and will carry a shower bouquet of bride roses. Her little veil will be held with a coronet of orange blossoms. After the wedding breakfast, which follows the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Allen will go North.

ECZEMA VICTIM GAVE UP HOPE

After Suffering a Year with Raw, Watery Humor on Hands and Face—Prescriptions Did Not Do a Bit of Good—Scratched Till Blood Came and Had to Quit Work.

COMPLETELY CURED BY CUTICURA REMEDIES

"I suffered with eczema for one year and had two of the best doctors in town, but their medicine did not help me. First of all, I had small white pimples on my left hand and I had to scratch until the blood came. Then the doctor said I had eczema and water would run over it. Wherever this water would run there would be more pimples. I am cured. My left hand was a mass of sores. Then my other hand became affected and they were like a piece of raw meat. Then I came to you and under my right arm so that I was unable to raise my arm for two weeks. It became so bad that I was obliged to give up work. About four months ago I started to doctor and the doctor told me I had eczema. So he told me to get ointment and soap. I used them for a month and they didn't do me one bit of good. So I tried another doctor. He gave me three different kinds of medicines, but I was very much put out when these remedies did not help me. I was unable to sleep at night and I gave up all hope until I decided to try the Cuticura Remedies. I used two cakes of Cuticura Soap, two boxes of Cuticura Ointment and three bottles of Cuticura Resolvent and I am glad to say I am cured. ## AIDS WILLIAMSON TO ESCAPE JAIL

Aunt of Prisoner, a Richmond Woman, Arrested in Petersburg.

FORGERY CASE CALLED

Suspected Fugitive From Justice Found by Officers.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 109 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., June 17.

An exciting incident in Junius A. Williamson's case occurred here this afternoon, being the arrest and imprisonment of Mrs. Annie Tibbs, of 1516 Buchanan Street, Richmond, the aunt of Williamson, on a warrant charging her with aiding and abetting Williamson to escape from jail. The aiding and abetting were confessed both by Williamson and Mrs. Tibbs.

It seems that on Saturday last Mrs. Tibbs conveyed to her nephew two twelve-inch saws. On Sunday night Williamson succeeded in sawing through the inner case of his double steel cell, but failed to saw through the outer case, and being detected by the jailer, he owned up and implicated his aunt, Mrs. Tibbs, in conveying the saws to him.

Mrs. Tibbs came over to Petersburg this morning to testify in behalf of Williamson on his trial for forgery. In all of his manifold troubles, under charges of wife-murder, bigamy and forgery, she has stuck to him in every way possible, even to aiding him to escape an arrest and now to escape jail, and his betrayal of her does not win sympathy for him. Williamson once before escaped from jail, enlisted in the army and was caught out in Wyoming.

Mrs. Tibbs says she provided the saws on Williamson's earnest appeal. She was lodged in jail and will to-morrow be taken into the Police Court for trial. The penalty for the offense with which she is charged is either heavy fine or imprisonment of not less than six months.

Williamson Case Called.—The case of the Commonwealth vs. Junius A. Williamson for forgery, was called in the Hustings Court this morning, having been set for trial to-day. The accused, through his counsel, Peck & Peck, of Richmond, and Robert Gilliam, Jr., of Petersburg, tendered a plea duly verified, setting up that as he had been sentenced at the last term of the court upon the plea of guilty of the charge of bigamy, to four years and six months in the penitentiary, he was a convict and not within the jurisdiction of the court, and therefore could not be tried for the forgery alleged to have been committed by him until after he had been discharged from the penitentiary upon the conviction and sentence at the last term.

Commonwealth's Attorney Mann moved to reject the plea, which was argued at length. While the court intimated that it was inclined to believe the plea a good one, it expressed the desire, without passing upon it, to have it tested by the Court of Appeals, and for that purpose it sustained the motion of the Commonwealth's attorney to reject the plea, and set the case for trial on June 27.

It is understood that the accused will in the meantime apply to the Court of Appeals for a writ of prohibition.

Whether or not Williamson will be tried for the forgery and later for the murder of his wife before he is discharged under the sentence for bigamy depends therefore on the action of the Court of Appeals on the application for a writ of prohibition.

Dividends Declared.—The Virginia National Bank has declared a semi-annual dividend on its capital stock of 3 per cent, amounting in the aggregate to $12,000.

The Capital and Trust Company has also declared a semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent.

General Expression.—The State officers and others at the bitterness and criticisms and counter-criticisms that are characterizing the culmination of the primary campaign. It is pointed out that the published charges and mutual denials are assuring the Republicans the most formidable "big stick" with which to lambaste the Democrats in the regular campaign, no matter which side wins. Not only that, but the damaging effect, they say, will be felt all over the State, it being certain that the Wake county conditions will be held up in all the counties as a general indictment of the party in county and State affairs.

Both sides are claiming victory in the Wake campaign. However, the greater weight of unbiased opinion seems to be in favor of the regular ticket, composed of the present county officers and legislative ticket. There seems to be an impression that the "regular" county ticket and the "insurgent" legislative ticket will be nominated. This would constitute something of a "dog fall" in the matter of results.

RAINS DAMAGE CROPS.—Situation in Sections of North Carolina is Serious.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Raleigh, N. C., June 17.—News from every section of the State is to the effect that the crops are deteriorating now very fast under the effect of the continued rains. Even as far West as Macon county, the news is that much damage is being done. Corporation Commissioner S. L. Rogers to-day received word from his plantations near Franklin that the situation is becoming quite serious. James H. Pott returned to-day from Johnston county, and says that he found the situation very serious throughout that section. Internal Revenue Collector Wheeler Martin, just from Williamson, reports that the damage by the rains is worse thereabouts than anywhere else. He has heard of the fields being exceptionally badly washed and flooded.

There is a hopeful note in the fact that all agree that if the weather conditions will only clear up now, and be succeeded by some good warm growing weather, the cotton will come out wonderfully, as will tobacco and other crops. The farmers will be able, too, to catch up with the grass which has in many sections gotten a headway that will require the utmost efforts to clear out. The outlook before this terrible wet season was for phenomenal yields in all crops.

Deceased is survived by four brothers and three sisters, residing in Petersburg: John P. Frank T. P. S. and Herbert Plummer, Mr. Mrs. S. Green, Jr., Mrs. S. N. Urquhart and Miss Ann Plummer, and sisters and brothers living elsewhere.

Suspected Desperado Arrested.—Information that a strange negro was going about armed on Old Street last night, Detective Eanes and Heelan went in search of him. They found him in a dark area, apparently ready, but not given a chance, to offer resistance. His hand was caught, as he threw it to his hip pocket, from which was taken a thick iron rod a foot and a half long, on the end of which were screwed two large iron bolts. He gave his name as Frank Wilson, of Robeson, N. C. He is suspected of being a desperado and fugitive from justice.

Shortly after midnight, an officer, on going into the station prison, found that a man, with a piece of iron bolted to the water sink, had nearly cut a large hole through the brick wall in an effort to escape.
